

International Students

International Students – Admissions

At Gupton-Jones College of Funeral Service, we value and celebrate the diversity of our college community. We are pleased that you are considering Gupton-Jones for your funeral service education.

Our Admissions Office supports international students throughout the admissions process. We are committed to maintaining compliance with federal requirements, helping students understand regulations related to their immigration status, and fostering an open and inclusive environment. We also serve as a resource for our international students and campus partners.

Gupton-Jones College of Funeral Service is authorized to enroll F-1 international students.

Application Requirements

International applicants, or students who graduated from high school abroad, must meet the same admissions standards and complete the same application steps as all other applicants. After being accepted into the program, international applicants must complete additional requirements to obtain the appropriate immigration and transcript documentation.

Applicants who attended an educational institution outside the United States must also provide the following:

- Certified translation: Submit complete, original academic transcripts accompanied by an official English translation prepared by a certified translator. Certified translators may be located through the American Translators Association.
- Credential evaluation: Submit an official course-by-course and credential evaluation completed by an agency that is a member of either the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services \(NACES\) or the Association of International Credential Evaluators \(AICE\).

Contact Us

For additional information about international student services or the admissions process, contact the Admissions Office at admissions@gupton-jones.edu or call 770-593-2257.